Dear Mr B. Wolf,

I am writing this letter because something has been drawn to my attention that you have been destroying homes and people's property.

I am going to tell you why it is wrong. First of all it is illegal to trespass on people's property. Also, it is wrong to destroy people's property. The Three Little Pigs are traumatised and are scared to leave <sup>their</sup> ~~here~~ current property.

Therefore, if you don't agree to what I have said in this letter I am sorry but I will have to take the matter further.

Yours sincerely

A good formal letter, (G)
