

The Power of Imagery Burgh Church

A Class Anthology
2016/2017

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh stands tall looking over his Christian family.

He is never alone.

He likes to pray to God to show that he loves him and to show his respect.

He likes to ring bells so everyone knows the time.

He would retire, but he likes it too much,

He has a great big garden around him.

He's lived there for as long as he can remember his whole life in fact!

He remembers all who have visited over the years.

Devon

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh stands strong, proudly carrying his heavy crown.

Although old,
he always has his eyes on his watch, waiting for his events to come.

He is always putting on services for his family and friends, for them to join him in worshipping God.

People come to visit him,
just to hear his amazing stories about Jesus.

When you look into his eyes, you see a clear picture of who he ~~is~~ ~~to~~ is

Athena

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh stands elevated and proud.

He gazes down on his Christian family, praying that they will be safe.

His colourful eyes glisten and sparkle from a far.
They tell us a story about Jesus.

He will will never, ever move as he has lived here in Burgh for to his whole life.

He ~~has~~ has a best friend

Father Terry

He has a golden heart!

Grace St

The Grandfather of Burgh.

The Grandfather of Burgh stands proud and tall above his jealous neighbours.

His big eyes watch people passing walking and talking all day, never getting tired of it.

People forever ask him the time.
Then with no thought, he gladly shows them.

His kindness has a special place in the hearts of people who have been welcomed warmly in to his family

He forever mourns his friends deep beneath the ground wishing to see them again

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh is noticed by all of his friends from far away
He's forever checking the time, making sure he rings the bells on time He's lived in Burgh for as long as anybody can remember, taking care of all who live in Burgh He wears his crown, but no longer reigns with as much power as he did before

Fillie-Hae

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh stands tall, towering above those around him.

If you look into his eyes you'll see a ~~see~~ Story, that he has a desire to spread.

He knows all that goes on in Burgh, watching your every move.

If you listen carefully, you can hear him, shouting ~~me~~ an announcement every fifteen minutes.

He stands tall, on the hill he has lived on his whole life, refusing to move away from his precious garden.

The King of Burgh

The King of Burgh stands strong
and proud,
his crown glistening in the new day sky.

People come to admire the great King, jealous of his tall and slim figure

He sees special occasions, he sees his friends and foes go past every day, and sings to himself while being there.

He makes an announcement to his Christian family every hour.
When he looks at the people, he tells a story of God

Megan
Holmes

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh gazes down on his people, praying for God's blessing.
His clock strikes regularly, he starts talking to the people.
When you get a chance to stare in his eyes you see a story of Jesus.
He is always busy outside and his friends come and visit.
He stays in the same spot every day and night he never moves!

The King of Buegh

The King of Buegh stands tall,
As he tries to reach the clouds above.
Every hour he rings the bell,
So people know he's about to talk.
As friends and strangers walk by,
They admire him.
He thinks he's the king of everyone,
Even though his reign is no more.

Riley D

The King of Burgh

Standing tall and proud, the King of Burgh towers above his Christian family.

His crown points up to the stars at night as his feet are glued to the floor, refusing to move.

He has lived in Burgh his whole life, always telling the time to people from his watch.

Loved ones and strangers come and visit him, whilst he makes an announcement.

Grace Sh

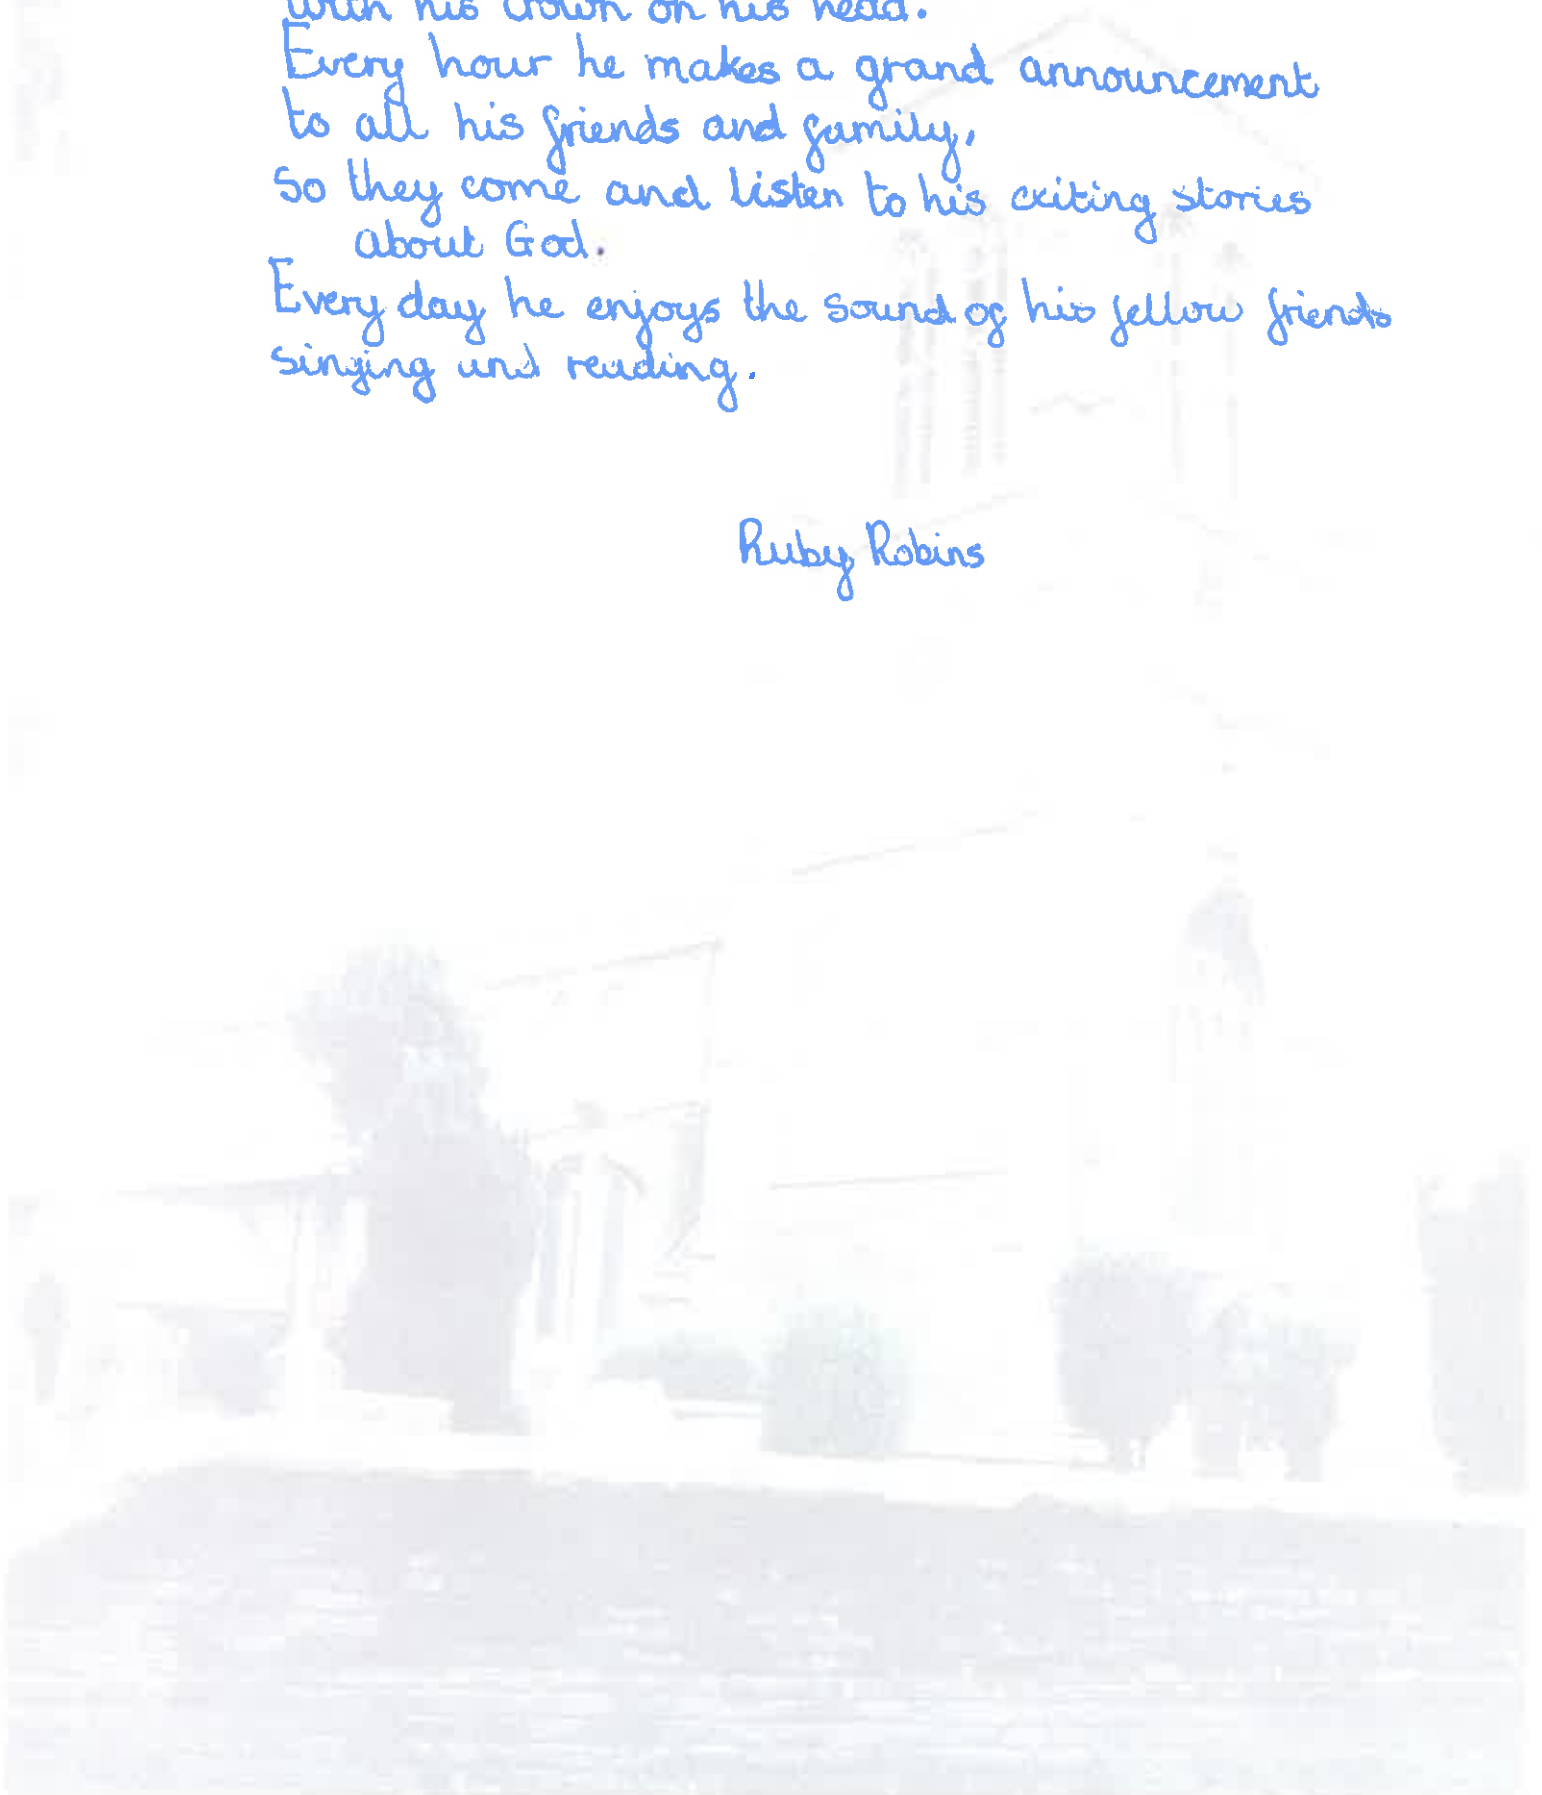

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh looks over his town,
He stands tall and proud with his crown on his head.

Every hour he makes a grand announcement to all his friends and family,
So they come and listen to his exciting stories about God.

Every day he enjoys the sound of his fellow friends singing and reading.

Ruby Robins

The King of Burgh

The King of Burgh stands tall and proud
With his crown in the heavens and his head in the sky, his neck stretches up Reigning more powerful before, the man still towers above his friends.
His golden heart makes a bold announcement every hour.

Billy

The Grandfather of Burgh

The Grandfather of Burgh
Stands tall and proud.
As he looks down on his flock while people ask him for the time.
He is so tall that he stands out in the crowd.

The Grandfather of Burgh has lived here all his life.
At certain time he shouts out for people to come and worship Jesus.
People walk by and he welcomes people into his family.

Charlie p

The Great Grandfather of Burgh

The Great Grandfather of Burgh reaches for the heavens above.

His eyes tell a story of Jesus, showing he is a strong believer.

He looks down at his people, remembering to them as they pass by.

He rings a bell every 1/2 hour, telling his people the time.

His reign is coming to an end now, as not as many people visit him now.

Jack

The King of Burgh

The King of Burgh stands still in appreciation of his domain.

People, in curiosity come to admire his gigantic figure.

Whatever the weather, rain, snow or hail, he stands strong without another thought in the world.

His God-like eyes glare at his trusty locket, waiting...

but waiting for what?

His disciples feel at home as he tries his best to do so, the more people come to worship him.

He stands old, but young to newcomers.

He is never alone as the holy spirit lives long inside him.

Algie B