

The Whale

One day, in a rough choppy sea, was a boat, a brown, plain boat with five old pirates, but well trained pirates, they were on a mission to find a whale, they also knew that there was another boat trying to find the whale too! And whoever found the whale first would win a prize of a million pounds, that was a lot of money in them days. So one of the boats saw a whale, but as soon as they reached it, the other boat came darting on the water, and before they knew it their boat had flipped over! "HELP "shouted Peter, and all the pirates entered the water with a SPLASH!, some of the pirates did not make it out alive, so Bob Kelvin and Peter came darting towards the ship and with a SLASH! Of peters axe they were in..." Garr where are they at? "shouted Kelvin "I don't know well get your legs moving AND FIND THEM! Replied Bob. "shush be quiet" Peter said, so Bob, Kelvin, and Peter sneakily went up the stairs that made a creak sound "I can see one!" Shouted Bob. "Bob why did you do THAT?"

"umm...woops" Replied Bob.

"they are coming now!" said peter

"Garr" shouted peter

So it was a three VS three, cling, clang, cling.The only two remain...Peter and John.

So the two pirates start fighting cling, clang, BASH!

POW! Then all of a sudden, there was silence, then a deep, loud voice came from upon the sky "why don't both of you stop fighting and agrre to work together and split the money in half ,five hundred thousand each."

“oh yeah” they both said so, they agreed to split the money, and they shook on it. Five hundred thousand each, but now how would they get home? They would have to use all of the materials from the broken ships, to make themselves a raft that would float, and move on the water, so they picked up pieces of wood and connected them piece after piece and at the end they ended up with a square so they could both end up fitting on it. And they also used two pieces of long wood to paddle, push them along.

Two hours later they made it all the way back to land and they both felt seasick, and all of their clothes were soaked in water, and then, they had a good rest. And lived happily ever after.

The End
